Varvayanis v. OFSRA

1 SC 105, Items 3 and 4

2 I. Statement of the Facts

3 A. Plaintiffs' Claims.

4 Plaintiffs CHARLES VARVAYANIS and PATRICIA JONES allege that they are entitled to a
5 credit for annual assessments and late fees regarding two parcels that Plaintiffs allege do not exist.

7 Plaintiffs allege damages in the sum of $2,048.00. Plaintiffs also ask the court to order Defendant to 8 adjust the "account(s) to a total of two parcels." This is one of three (3) small claims actions filed by 9 Plaintiffs against Defendant that are set for trial on August 23, 2012 in Dept. 5 of this court.
10

11 B. Defendant and the HOA.

12 Defendant is a California corporation with its principal place of business in Tuolumne County, 13 California. Defendant was incorporated on January 19, 1949. Defendant is in good standing with the 14 California Secretary of State.
15

16 ODD FELLOWS SIERRA HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION ("HOA") is a California non-17 profit corporation with its principal place of business in Tuolumne County, California. HOA was 18 incorporated on October 10, 1986.

19 Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs are members of the HOA and Plaintiff Charles
20 Varvayanis is a former member of the board of directors and former assistant to the President of the 21 HOA.

22 C. The Park and the Subject Property.

23 There currently exist in Tuolumne County, California certain subdivisions known as I.O.O.F.
24 Odd Fellows Sierra Camp Subdivision No. 1 and I.O.O.F. Odd Fellows Sierra Camp Subdivision No. 2
25 (collectively, the "Park"). The Park consists of approximately 364 subdivision lots. Upon information
26 and belief, Plaintiffs own four (4) subdivision lots.

27 At all times referenced herein, Defendant was the legal owner of certain areas within and 28 adjacent to the Park (collectively, the "Subject Property").

1 Defendant is also the owner of certain improvements to the Subject Property, including, without
2 limitation, gates, streets/roadways, signage, lighting, drainage systems, wells, water storage systems,
3 water supply systems, lake, picnic area, baseball field, playground area, etc. Defendant also owns one
4 (1) lot within the Park that is used for a caretaker's cabin.

5 Upon information and belief, HOA does not hold legal title to any real property in Tuolumne
6 County, California. However, upon information and belief, certain members of HOA, including
7 Plaintiffs, hold legal title to various lots within the Park.

8 D. The Subject Agreements.

9 On or around October 12, 1986, Defendant and HOA entered into that certain Water Use
10 Agreement (the "Water Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, Defendant agreed to 11 provide water to HOA on a wholesale basis provided that HOA pay for all expenses associated with the 12 provision of such water. The term of the Water Agreement was set to expire by its own terms on 13 October 11, 2011.

14 The water that is and was provided by Defendant to HOA is provided from various wells and
15 related water storage system that are located on the Subject Property and through a system of pipes that 16 are also located on the Subject Property. As set forth above, Defendant is the legal owner of the Subject
17 Property and all improvements thereto.

18 On or around October 12, 1986, Defendant and HOA also entered into that certain License
19 Agreement (the "License Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, Defendant agreed to 20 permit HOA to use the streets and roads on the Subject Property for access purposes and maintain such 21 streets and roads provided that HOA pay for all expenses associated therewith. The term of the License
22 Agreement was set to expire by its own terms on October 11, 2011. The License Agreement was 23 subsequently modified by the parties so that HOA would pay in advance for the estimated cost of the 24 expenses incurred by Defendant pursuant to the License Agreement.

25 Between October 12, 1986 and May 31, 2011, Defendant and HOA also entered into various
26 other agreements pursuant to which, among other things, Defendant agreed to provide the following
27 services or improve and provide use of certain areas of the Subject Property: access gate maintenance
28 and repair; pine needle disposal; improvement and use (and maintenance (and repair as applicable)) of

1 lake, recreation hall, picnic area, baseball field, playground, and other similar types of areas on the
2 Subject Property; maintenance and repair of vehicles used in connection with the foregoing; services of
3 an onsite caretaker to assist in providing the aforementioned services; and certain other services (the 4 “Other Agreements”). HOA agreed to pay, in advance, for the estimated cost of providing the foregoing
5 pursuant to the Other Agreements. The parties agreed that the term of the Other Agreement would
6 expire upon expiration of the Water Use Agreement and License Agreement. The Water Agreement,
7 License Agreement and Other Agreements may hereinafter be collectively referred to as the “Subject
8 Agreements”.

9 E. Determination and Payment of Amounts Due Pursuant to Subject Agreements.

10 During each May between October 12, 1986 and May 31, 2011, Defendant, at its annual meeting
11 of shareholders, would determine, based on the previous fiscal year’s costs, the estimated cost of the 12 services to be provided by Defendant to HOA pursuant to the Subject Agreements for the upcoming
13 fiscal period of June 1 through May 31 (the “Annual Fee”).

14 Defendant would then promptly inform HOA of the Annual Fee for the fiscal period of June 1
15 through May 31. HOA would then divide such Annual Fee by the number of lots in the Park and assess
16 each lot owner of the Park for their prorata share of such Annual Fee. From time to time the HOA
17 would also make special assessments. Upon information and belief, HOA’s governing documents permit
18 the charging of late fees if annual assessments or special assessments were not promptly paid.

19 F. Payment of Annual Fees/Judgment Against HOA.

20 Between October 12, 1986 and May 31, 2011, HOA promptly paid the Annual Fees due.
21 However, HOA failed to pay the entire Annual Fee due for the period beginning on June 1, 2011 and 22 ending on May 31, 2012 (the “2011-12 Annual Fee”). As a result thereof, Defendant filed an action in 23 Tuolumne County Superior Court, Case No. CV57297, against HOA. HOA defaulted in such matter
24 and at a prove-up hearing held on July 13, 2012, the court determined that Defendant was entitled to 25 judgment against HOA in the amount of $213,770.00 plus attorneys’ fees and costs.

26
27 G. Plaintiffs’ Lots.
28

1 As set forth above, Plaintiffs own four (4) separate subdivision lots within the Park. HOA's
2 articles and bylaws and the Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions recorded on each of Plaintiff's lots
3 (the "CC&Rs") permit assessments, special assessments and late charges for each lot of the Park (based
4 on the original subdivision maps of the Park).

6 Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs merged their four (4) lots with the County of Tuolumne
7 so that there are now only two (2) APNs for their four (4) subdivision lots.

10 II. This Court Does not Have Jurisdiction to Grant Declaratory Relief

11 A small claims court's jurisdiction is constrained by Code of Civil Procedure¹ Sections 116.220
12 and 116.221. Section 116.220, subdivision (b), allows a small claims court some equitable powers:
13 rescission, restitution, reformation, and specific performance. Sections 116.220 and 116.221 do not
14 permit declaratory relief.
15

16 Although it is not entirely clear from Plaintiffs' claim filed in this action, Defendant believes that 17 Plaintiffs are claiming, that, as a result of the merger of their four (4) lots with the County of Tuolumne,
18 Defendant (rather than HOA) should now recognize their four (4) original subdivision lots as two (2)
19 lots under HOA's articles and bylaws and the CC&Rs since the date of merger.²
20

21 It would appear that Plaintiffs are further claiming that, as a result of such lot mergers with the 22 County of Tuolumne, Defendant (rather than HOA) owes Plaintiffs for $2,048.00 for assessments and 23

25 ¹Further statutory references are to the Code of Civil Procedure unless otherwise noted.

26 ² Plaintiffs do not indicate when such mergers occurred in their claim. Upon information and belief, HOA's articles and 27 bylaws and the CC&Rs do not recognize such merged lots as single lots for assessment purposes. Upon information and 28 belief, HOA has also not made a determination whether or not it will recognize merged lots as single lots for assessment purposes as of the date hereof.

1 late fees allegedly paid by Plaintiffs to HOA for an unspecified period of time.³

2 While Plaintiffs' claims and the proper defendant in this matter are less than certain, what is
3 certain is that in order to grant Plaintiffs the relief requested, this court must first determine whether or
4 not by merging lots with the County of Tuolumne, Defendant (not HOA as this action was filed against
5 Defendant only) must recognize Plaintiff's four (4) original subdivision lots as two (2) lots under HOA's
6 articles and bylaws and the CC&Rs. Plaintiffs are clearly asking for declaratory relief with regard to the 7 foregoing.

9 Assuming that this court were even able to make the determination set forth above, the court
10 must then determine whether or not the "account(s)" of Defendant must be adjusted "to a total of two 11 parcels". Plaintiffs are clearly again asking for declaratory relief with regard to the foregoing.
12

13 Given the constraints of Sections 116.220 and 116.221, this court does not have jurisdiction in 14 this matter to grant the relief requested by Plaintiffs.
15

17 III. The Sum of the Three Small Claims Actions filed Against Defendant by 18 Plaintiffs Exceeds Small Claims Jurisdictional Limits

19 Section 116.221 grants a small claims court jurisdiction over actions brought by natural persons
20 for amounts not more than $10,000.00. Where a single plaintiff has several small claims against a
21 defendant, the total sum is the test of jurisdiction. (Emery v. Pacific Employers Ins. Co. (1937) 8 Cal.2d
22 663, 666 [67 P.2d 1046]; City and County of San Francisco v. Small Claims Court (1983) 141
23 Cal.App.3d 470, 477 [190 Cal.Rptr. 340].)

26 ³ It is unclear to Defendant why Plaintiffs brought this action against Defendant instead of HOA as HOA, not Defendant,
27 collected the assessments, special assessments and late fees as set forth above (and then paid such amounts to Defendant as 28 part of the Annual Fees (as referenced above)).

1 As set forth above, this action is one of three (3) small claims actions filed by Plaintiffs against
2 Defendant that are set for trial on August 23, 2012 in Dept. 5 of this court. Plaintiffs ask for recovery of
3 $8,460.00 in SC18553. Plaintiffs seek recovery of $2,048 in this action. In SC18586, Plaintiffs seek
4 recovery of $270. The total damages requested by Plaintiffs in all three actions are $10,778.

6 Thus, even if this court had jurisdiction to grant declaratory relief, Plaintiffs by filing three (3)
7 separate small claims actions against Defendant have exceeded the jurisdictional amount of this court for 8 natural persons.

10 V. Conclusion

11 Plaintiffs' case is not appropriate for resolution in small claims court because it asks for 12 declaratory relief, which is not statutorily authorized, and because Plaintiffs have filed three (3) separate
13 small claims actions, the aggregate of which exceeds $10,000.00. Defendant accordingly asks that 14 Plaintiffs' case be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.
15

16 In addition to the foregoing, Plaintiffs' case should have been brought against the HOA and not 17 Defendant as set forth above.
