Judge Kevin Seibert

SACRAMENTO – Gov. Jerry Brown appointed Napa native Kevin M. Seibert to a judgeship in the Tuolumne County Superior Court.

Seibert, 56, of Sonora, has been a partner at Downey Brand LLP since 2000. He was a partner at Steinheimer, Riggio, Haydel and Mordaunt from 1991 to 2000, where he was an associate from 1985 to 1990.

Seibert attended Browns Valley School, Ridgeview Junior High, and Napa High, graduating in 1976. His parents are Dr. Warren Seibert, deceased, and Lois Seibert.

Seibert earned a juris doctor degree from the University of the Pacific, McGeorge School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Brigham Young University. He fills the vacancy created by the retirement of Judge Eleanor Provost. Seibert is registered without party preference.

In his youth, he played soccer at Napa High, and worked in Judge Thomas Kongsgaard's court his senior year. He has four children. He and his wife is Sally live in Sonora.
